

Don't do it !! I use the spectrum that will be hashed by noise every day. I am a Radio Amateur Liscensee!! The radiation fields from studies already conducted indicate the Amateur will be subjected to intolerable increases in the broadband noise levels at the antenna. As will any other user of the spectrum. It will have a detrimental effect on the Amateurs' ability to provide emergency communications, counted on by local and state officials.